STIPULATED ORDER MODIFYING
BRIEFING SCHEDULE FOR MOTION
TO SUPPRESS EVIDENCE

19 Plaintiff UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, by and through its counsel in this 20 matter, Assistant United States Attorney (“AUSA”) Randy Luskey, and defendant
21 DANIEL SANTIAGO, by and through his counsel, Peter Goodman, hereby stipulate 22 and agree as follows:

23 1. On December 18, 2012, this Court approved a briefing schedule and 24 hearing date agreed to by the parties for defendant SANTIAGO's intended Motion to 25 Suppress Evidence. The briefing schedule provided that defendant SANTIAGO would 26 file his motion on January 15, 2013, the government would file its opposition on January 27 29, 2013, and the defendant would file any reply brief on February 5, 2013. A hearing
28 on the motion was scheduled for February 12, 2013, at 2:30 p.m.

1 2. Counsel for defendant SANTIAGO has requested and the government 2 has agreed to a modification of the briefing schedule and the hearing date to allow 3 defense counsel to complete research on the merits of two additional issues he may 4 raise in the suppression motion. The proposed modification agreed to by the parties
5 would result in a one week continuance of the dates previously set so that defendant
6 SANTIAGO would file his suppression motion on January 22, 2013, the government
7 would file its opposition on February 5, 2013, the defendant would file any reply brief
8 on February 12, 2013, and the hearing on the motion would take place on February 19, 9 2013, at 2:30 p.m.

10 3. The parties further agree that if the defendant raises additional issues
11 in his motion beyond suppression of the statements he made to the police on August 12 13, 2012, and the government requests additional time to respond to those issues, the 13 defendant will not oppose a further modification of the briefing schedule and the hearing 14 date to accommodate that request.
